I RISE TO REMARK

BY JOHN PHILLIPS

A Column of Quotes:

With the election only a few days away, when you read this in the home papers, the thoughts of the voters will be on government, or I rise to remark that they ought to be. So let's see that various well-known people, from time to time, have said on this, or related subjects:

* * * "All kinds of governments are not suited to all climates." Pierre Corneille said it in 1639. It suggests now that the "climate" of America has been pretty good for the Republic, and that we should look with suspicion on suggestions that we "improve it" by adopting features from other parts of the world.

* * * "When a people shall have become incapable of governing themselves, and fit for a master, it is of little consequence from what quarter he comes." George Washington wrote that, in a letter to Lafayette, in 1788:

* * * "The deterioration of every government begins with the decay of the principles on which it was founded." From "The Spirit of the Laws," by De Montesquieu, about 1748.

* * * "Those who can fairly carry on an election can also suppress a rebellion." That is from Abraham Lincoln's message to the Congress, 4 June 1861. Recent events in the United States may make it a timely quotation.

* * * "If men be good, government cannot be bad." William Penn said that in 1693, and it is still good in 1948.

* * * "From a spiritual and moral point of view, it is truly tragic to watch how good men are working themselves to death on 'organizational problems,' where the only problem to tackle is the basic one of honesty in the nations' dealing with one another: It is almost Biblical irony to have an organization, which includes a Soviet veto, call itself 'United' Nations." Dr. C. S. Norborg, pastor of the Norwegian Memorial Church in Chicago, former intelligence officer of the OSS, and editor of the increasingly widely read fortnightly letter called "American World Intelligence," from which the above is quoted.

* * * "It is not possible to cooperate with smallpox." Dr. Syngman Rhee, newly elected head of the Korean government, in reply to a State Department suggestion that Korea "cooperate" with Russian communism. This reminds me of the statement of a State Department official, ONE WEEK AFTER PEARL HARBOR, that "nothing could be done about Korea because it might antagonize the Japanese."

* * * "I do suggest that we are neither big enough nor rich enough to become permanent almoner to the whole earth. I add that we face no such obligation, moral or otherwise, despite a tendancy in some places, both at home and abroad, to assign us automatically to this role, almost as though we owed reparations to our allies in return for having made colossal contributions to their victory:" and again in the same speech, "There is a bottom to every barrel, even America's." Again, "A bankrupt America can be of no ultimate help to the world. The memory of our sweet generosity would be little consolation in the midst of our insolvency." The above quotations are from the remarks of Senator Vandenberg, of Michigan, on April 9th, 1945, which appear in the Congressional Record of that date.

Be sure to vote. I'd like to say, as I've said before, that it makes less difference whom you vote for, than it does that you vote. I'll say that I think this election is a little more important than usual; it may well be the critical year in our history. Vote, and get your neighbors to vote on June 1. It's the only way to preserve and protect representative government under the Republic! that's our form of government.

Earl Sartwell Prepares Exhibit For Big Show

At the world's largest mineral and gem show July 16, 17 and 18 in the Long Beach municipal auditorium, there will be shown thousands of gems, hundreds of mineral specimens and tons of fluorescent material. And among the many exhibits will be one displayed by a Cypress man, Earl Sartwell, who will have his own Sartwell Gem Drill set up and in operation for all the visitors to observe. The affair will undoubtedly be one of the most educational and unique of its kind, including a full program of speakers, movies and demonstrations.

Letter By Flynn Good Influence For Code Change

Indignant because undesirable buildings were being moved into Cypress in an area which was being developed into a good residential subdivision by setting buildings back 150 feet from the street which automatically exempted them from building codes and any kind of inspection, the secretary of the chamber of commerce, Russell Flynn, was instructed by a vote of the members to write to the county board of supervisors protesting this misuse of the "ranch act" and asking for a change in the building code. Last week, E. M. Mani, county building department head, announced that an amendment to the building code had been prepared which will eliminate the nuisance.

Mani said that the amendment which he plans to present to the board of supervisors at the first meeting in June, provides for the control of all buildings in unincorporated areas of the county as well as making some minor changes and clarifying building restrictions.

A minimum of objections to the changes in the building code is expected, as even the Orange County Farm Bureau has announced that it favors elimination of the "ranch act" which was set up originally for the benefit of the ranchers.

Suit Filed In Superior Court By A. Ronconi

A damage suit for $14,432.78 has been filed in the superior court against the Clougherty Packing company of Los Angeles county, and Homer DeWitt Mackreth, driver of the truck, by Angelo Ronconi, for injuries received when struck by the truck while riding a motor scooter last July 28.

Ronconi claims in his suit that he was riding his scooter on Walker street at Lincoln avenue, when he was struck by the truck which was westward bound on Lincoln. He spent six weeks in the hospital and was confined to his bed at home for four months after that he told the court.

New Business Will Feature Grocery And Meats Here

A new market, housed in a new building with up-to-date equipment, will be opened soon on the Ihnen property east of town. In charge of the store will be Charles Yonas, who has been in business for himself for several years in Long Beach, and who is well-qualified to care for the market. Mr. and Mrs. Yonas will move to Cypress from Long Beach as soon as suitable living quarters can be found.

H. H. Ihnen, who has supervised construction of the building, states that because of his health and other business interests, he will not be able to open the establishment himself, as originally planned. He and his son, H. A. "Bud" Ihnen, both operate egg markets for the sale of their fresh ranch eggs in Long Beach and do other wholesale egg selling. The Ihnen's have lived in Orange county since 1942, and formerly lived in Long Beach where they were residents since 1920.

Norland Announces Opening Of New Headquarters

D. O. Norland is announcing in this issue the grand opening of the brand-new store building to house the Rain-Way Garden and Poultry Equipment store. The Norlands have been in the business for over sixteen years manufacturing the famous "Rain-Way sprinkler," and now they are advising of the completion of a building which will sell a full line of equipment to poultry raisers, many items of which they manufacture themselves, in addition to a complete stock of garden equipment.

The invitation to come into the store Saturday promises to be an interesting occasion, since two door prizes will be given, besides a free gift to each one. The first prize is 25 feet of three-quarter inch hose and a Rain-Way sprinkler, and the second prize is a Rain-Way sprinkler. The operators of the Rain-Way Sprinkler Garden and Poultry Equipment Store are to be congratulated on their building and business achievement.

Buena Park Has Most Successful Celebration

The 2nd annual Home Town Day celebration and parade exceeded the fondest hopes and expectations of the sponsoring business men's organization, was the concensus of opinion at the meeting Wednesday noon at Kellogg's

One of the most pleasant events of Home Town Day was the Old Timers' Dinner held in the social hall of the Congregational Church. Although the group was not large, the spirit of friendship and unity derived by seeing old neighbors and remembering events of other days, made it very enjoyable.

Bouquets were given to Burton Heald, who was the oldest person present, to Mrs. L. T. Wilsey, who moved here in 1906, earlier than anyone else at the dinner, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Convey, married in Buena Park in 1907, the earliest marriage of any couple there; to Mrs. Floyd Neal, born here at the earliest date of anyone at the reunion, and to the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. McGranahan, the youngest person present, and the grandson of the Conveys.

This Old Timers dinner is to be an annual affair, according to Mrs. M.M. Stephens, who planned it this year. It will undoubtedly grow to be the most popular event of Home Town Day, as the days of Auld Lang Syne have an appeal that always holds its charm. "Do you remember when" is a never failing source of interest, and this dinner was no exception. Chairs were placed on the walk leading to the church door affording a perfect view of the parade.

An estimated crowd of 10,000 saw the parade and more than 500 participated in it. Every phase of the program went off as scheduled with a minimum of confusion and, what is better, those who took part without exception stated that they would return and participate again next year, was the statement of the committee.

Financially the affair came out a little in the hole when all the expenses were totaled but the deficit was so small that after the "hat had been passed" the treasury was actually $4.15 to the good. The membership voted to order all bills paid and another annual Home Town Day celebration was history.

FLOAT — This colorful float was among those which drew a great deal of comment in the Buena Park "Home Town Days" parade Saturday. The float was fashioned from hand-sewn flowers and took 30 days to make. An estimated crowd of 10,000 took part in the celebration.

OUR DEMOCRACY——by Mat
BOTH BORROWERS AND LENDERS
AS THE NATION HAS MOVED FORWARD FROM RELATIVELY SIMPLE TO MORE COMPLEX WAYS OF LIVING, MOST OF US HAVE BECOME BOTH BORROWERS AND LENDERS— DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY.
-BORROWERS, FOR EXAMPLE, THROUGH THE MORTGAGE ON OUR HOME
-LENDERS, AS THE FUNDS OF OUR LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN HOME MORTGAGES.
AS BORROWERS WE ARE INTERESTED IN OBTAINING MONEY ON FAIR TERMS. AS LENDERS, WE ARE INTERESTED IN A RETURN THAT ADEQUATELY REWARDS AND ENCOURAGES THRIFT— AND THIS IS TRUE WHETHER OUR THRIFT BE THROUGH LIFE INSURANCE— SAVINGS ACCOUNTS — OR INVESTMENTS.
HUBERT MATHCOCK

IT'S BEING SAID -- IN CYPRESS

That if you lived in a small community such as Cypress and had an unusual name like Frank Noe's, you would be secure in the belief that you could build your business on the basis of your odd name. But what do you know, Noe? He knows now that an insurance company in a neighboring town had a salesman arrive from Aberdeen, Washington, to live in Southern California. So not knowing where to locate him particularly, they gave him the territory covering Buena Park, Cypress and Artesia. And now Frank is getting many inquiries as to whether or not George Noe is his brother! But Frank still carries on for his pet, life insurance, although he is agent here to write all kinds of insurance. And while our Noe's name rhymes with "No," he does not take "no" for an answer on insurance, when its to your and my best interests to listen. So keddy on, old boy, and may they never say nay to the Noe's.

That we forgive the operators of the bright little red jeep which circulated around town last week and challenged our title to the brightest color in town, along with Reed's "fire" red delivery truck. The boys were good friends of ours during rationing days when it was nice to know a couple of "meat cutters." Now they have taken to the great out of doors. Ray Monkres owns the jeep and Uncle "Less" Browning is helping nephew George haul "that stuff." But it will make a beautiful lawn later, and residents on St. Anne street had better look to their laurels!

That in our family, the younger they are, the smarter and bigger they get. We received word this week that our youngest brother, Dale, who is six feet tall and weighs 200 pounds (well, 198, then), was honored in a recent convocation at Iowa State college with a fellowship. This is the first time anything like that ever happened to us, and we are very proud. We bet he knows what "white gold" stands for. A collitch education is really wonderful! And just in case you missed the whole point of the story, we happen to be the oldest in the family!

That it's so quiet in the east end of town with Jo Addington on her way to Oklahoma and Lee in the hospital that we could hear Otho Switzer down in his office sigh with that awful rheumatic pain he is suffering in his left arm.

Announcement

At the meeting of the local VFW which was held last Wednesday night, it was decided that the meetings of the organization would henceforth be held regularly on Thursday nights. The Scout cabin, in the rear of the school grounds, will be used as the meeting place.

Hathcock Heads Committee To Plan "White Gold Days"

By Beth Kroesen

The regular meeting of the Cypress Chamber of Commerce was held at the school house last Monday evening. Following the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, the president, Jack Fullerton, declared that in the interests of the park recreation committee, the evening would be given over to an open discussion. Fullerton presided in the absence of the chairman of the park committee, Jake Van Dyke, who was ill and unable to be present. The questions to be discussed were in connection with Cypress' annual celebration, "White Gold Days". This year will mark the second such annual occasion.

The title, "White gold days", as it appears at first glance, is in no way connected with any of the many centennial celebrations being observed in California during these years marking a century of growth in most communities in the southern part of the state. Rather, the theme is more enduring and the term "white gold" is supposed to suggest "milk," just as the phrase "black gold" immediately calls to mind "oil." The implication is two-fold: first, because Cypress is located in the heart of the dairy industry and agricultural section, and second, because to think of milk is to think of children; and the ultimate goal of the park recreation committee, in all of its financial undertakings, is to provide an adequate recreaton center for the children and young people of this community. The committee has its sights set on a well-developed play ground with adequate facilities for all types of amusement for children of all ages and their parents. Any project it attempts is with the development of the park, located to the north of the Pacific Electric tracks in mind.

The first order of business was to choose a chairman to head the activities of the committee in charge of making the plans and arrangements for this celebration. Unanimously elected, with no opposition, was Richard Hathcock. He will appoint a committee to work with him which will be announced at a later date. Also to be decided and reported upon are various details which need further consideration and contemplation. Paramount among these is a decision on a location for the celebration this year. It was the consensus of those present that if the headquarters of the fair and day's activities could be centered somewhere along Lincoln avenue, perhaps in a vacant lot near the center of town, it would attract tourist trade and add considerably from a financial viewpoint. Also, the date to be finally chosen was left to the discretion of the committee, since a great deal depends upon plans in surrounding communities for similar fetes in the fall.

Great plans are being made for this special day, keeping in mind always the thought that the goal to be reached is in the interests of the youth of this community. With this goal in mind, it behooves each citizen to give his full support to the plans made by the central committee, which has the interests of the community as a whole at heart.

Again in the interests of the park committee, the question of the Friday night moving pictures at the school house was brought up for discussion and decision. It was decided to contact the local merchants for advertising as was done last year, and in order to get a better class of films a small admission fee will be charged. The title to be shown this Friday night is "Foreign correspondent."

This project is undertaken by the park recreation committee and the amount raised each season goes into the general fund to be used for the new park, as are the proceeds from White Gold days and other financial ventures which the committee undertakes.

While on the subject of the park the committee stated that it intended to finish the backstop which was started some time ago in order that the youngsters will be able to play ball there when school is out and vacation starts. A group of small boys with a team started will be furnished with balls to play softball as part of the park equipment.

New Financial Responsibility Law Becomes Operative

Chances of collecting full damages for an automobile accident in which you were the victim will increase to four to one in your favor after July 1, A. H. Henderson, Director of Motor Vehicles, said in a radio address recently.

After that date, he explained, the new Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility Law becomes operative. It requires persons driving in California to be prepared to pay for their traffic accidents or get off the highways.

Chances are only one in three at present that you would be able to collect on any accident damage judgment, Henderson said.

His speech opened a six weeks campaign to acquaint the people of California to their responsibilities under the new law.

Begining at once, and continuing through the next six weeks, Henderson said, the Department of Motor Vehicles will give you the opportunity of learning all you need to know about the new Financial Responsibility Law, through the press, over the radio, and in a folder the Department itself has issued.

At the conclusion of the educational campaign, Henderson said, igorance will not be accepted as an excuse for violating the law.

He emphasized that the law aporc mfwyluc mfdl cmf cmfw mfw plies directly to operators or drivers of motor vehicles. Owners, unless they are driving at the time of an accident, are not concerned.

"On and after July 1, if you are the driver of a motor vehicle that is involved in an accident resulting in death or personal injury, or property damage in excess of $100, you must furnish the Department of Motor Vehicles with proof that you are financially responsible for damage you have caused, or forfeit your driving privilege until some special conditions have been satisfied," Henderson said.

The driver of every car in such an accident must file with the Department in 10 days a written report on a special form or suffer suspension of his driver's license. The forms can be obtained from offices of the Department of Motor Vehicles, California Highway Patrol, Police Departments, insurance agents or brokers.

"The Department of Motor Vehicles will determine from your report, and the reports of others involved how much damage resulted. You will then be called upon by the Department to deposit sufficient securities to cover all damage claims that may arise out of the accident. The same demand will be made of the drivers of any other car or cars that were involved.

"If you fail to deposit such security with the Department of Motor Vehicles within 60 days from your accident report," Henderson warned, "your driving privilege will be suspended and it cannot be restored until you have made such deposit, received a release from blame signed by all parties involved, been adjudged innocent of causing the accident by a competent court, settled all claims, reached an agreement with the other parties for settlement of claims on an installment basis or furnish-satisfactory proof that you have obtained judgement against the other party or parties.

"Only the satisfaction of any one of these requirements will be acceptable ground for restoration of your driving permit."

Henderson pointed out that the Department has no discretion under the law to consider the guilt or innocence of any driver.

Lynx To Tackle World Champions In Next Series

After taking three games of a four game split series with the visiting Detroit Chene - Twombly Girls, the Buena Park Lynx are in fine form to tackle the highly touted Phoenix Ramblers, last year's national championship winners.

Rated as one of the strongest contenders for the title again this year, the Lynx will have to be at their best to handle the champs.

The next series on the home field will be against the Salt Lake City team on June 10, 11, and 12.

The Final FREE ISSUE

The "Cypress Enterprise" has been given free circulation since March in order that residents could receive the paper and become acquainted with its advertisers and editorial policies.

Mrs. Richard Hathcock is chairman of the committee in charge of subscriptions.

DAN MACKAY IS RE-ELECTED TO SCHOOL BOARD

The annual election for members of the board of trustees of the Cypress elementary school district was held last Friday afternoon, May 21, at the schoolhouse. Dan Mackay was re-elected to serve as trustee, and will begin his sixth term in office. Mackay is also secretary of the board.

Word has been received that the county has set September 13 as the official date for the opening of schools in the fall. This county-wide planning is done to coordinate the activities of all schools in order that parents may plan the vacations of their children in the various phases of school training. The final date for opening of school is left to the discretion of the local school board, and in Cypress it will depend to some extent upon the completion of the new building now under construction.

Collins Unapposed For Assembly

Sam L. Collins, Speaker of the Assembly, who is running without opposition in the June 1 primary election, has had a long career in public life, including two terms in the United States Congress.

He came to California as a small boy in 1903 and has resided here ever since.

He is a veteran of the Mexican Border Campaign and World War 1

In 1921 he was admitted to the bar and in 1926 became deputy district attorney.

From 1930 to 1932 he was our district attorney, resigning to become our congressman.

In 1940 he was elected to the State Assembly and was the Republican floor leader for two years before becoming speaker of the Assembly.

A resident of Fullerton, he still maintains his law office there, although the press of State Legislative affairs requires most of his time.

It is highly complimentary to Sam L. Collins that his public and private life is of such a high quality that he is running without opposition.

THOUGHTS ON MEMORIAL DAY

This year, as in the years since 1941, it will be Memorial Day all over the world, in the hearts of the American people.

While decorating the graves at home their thoughts will go out to distant fields where the white crosses stand stiffly at attention over the final resting places of other American boys—Normandy and Anzio, Okinawa and Guadalcanal, France and Germany, North Africa and Sicily.

It is fitting that those who died in battle should be remembered but it is more important that we remember what they died for. However much we eulogize them on Memorial Day, we are not paying our debt to them unless we're striving to make this world a better world—that kind of a world for which they made the great sacrifice.

This end will not be achieved soley on the level of international conferences and diplomatic negotiations. Rather, it will come, in the main through individual self improvement, through the elimination in our own lives of hate, intolerance and injustice in all its forms. The world can be no better than the people make it; the world can be no better than you.

Through better lives then, let us build a better world in honor and in memory of our heroic dead.

SLOW DOWN

There's still room in "auto row" graveyard —but it lies on a highcost toll road.

Figures compiled by the American Automobile Association show that speeders, even though they're lucky enough to avoid accidents, pay a heavy premium for saving minutes.

Slam-bang drivers use more than 30 per ent more gas than the take-it-easy variety. On the highway the going is even more expensive. Some 60 per cent more fuel is used at 60 miles per hour than at 40. And the higher the speed the more oil the car burns and the greater the wear and tear on the mechanism.

The reckless driver jeopardizes everything in his path. The sensible driver saves costs as well as lives.

PIE IN THE SKY By COLLIER

THIS AND THAT

Word has been received from the personnel office at Birmingham Veterans Administration hospital in Van Nuys that thirty graduate nurses and fifty single male veterans are urgently needed to help provide medical care for hospitalized veterans. Further information may be had by calling Rugby 6-1931, extensions 31 or 24, or by applying in person to Room 125, administration building, any time between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Champion performers of the horse show rings, Wonderland sensation of five-gaited fame, and Sharon O'Dare, fine harness titleholder, will exhibit among many other top stars in the seventh annual horse show which starts June 15 at the Horse Palace on Riverside drive, officials have announced. More than 400 horses will be seen in the show competing for prize money aggregating $10,000.

The veterans administration, at 1031 S. Broadway in Los Angeles, is reminding veterans of two deadline dates to remember. Seriously disabled World War II veterans, eligible for automobiles at government expense, have until June 30 to submit their applications. Those eligible should apply for their cars at least 15 days before the deadline to allow ample time to process their applications. In the area comprising California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii, more than 1450 veteran leg amputees have received automobiles.

Those veterans who have allowed their National Service Life term insurance to lapse have only until July 31 to reinstate it without physical examination. In order to reinstate lapsed term insurance the veteran need only certify that his health is as good as when the policy lapsed and pay two monthly premiums.

Largest and finest collection of antique hatpins in the world is that of Marie Crotty, Long Beach, which is on display at the third annual west coast Antique Show at the Pan Pacific in Los Angeles. The show ends Memorial Day evening.

Veterans and farmers in need of housing now can purchase from the state of California for less than $1000 a "packaged" dwelling house unit of building materials cut from surplus barracks at Camp Beale. Included in the price is a set of assembly drawings for use in arranging wall, floor and roof panels into the basic structure of a three-bedroom home with 1284 square feet of floor space. By utilizing one of the packaged units it is said the purchasers obtain a livable, finished house for as little as $4000, if most of the reconstruction work is done by the purchaser.

Interested veterans should first file applications for eligibility to local veterans' service officers, located at the county seat.

Interested farmers should apply to county advisors or farm placement managers of the state department of employment.

This year's winners in the Atwater Kent auditions for 1948 were Lucine Amara, 23-year-old dramatic soprano, and baritone, Robert Appleston, 26, both of San Francisco. The first prizes were $2000 each. The annual musical contest drew 3000 entrants from the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Poet's Corner

The following poem, entitled "Someone Cared," is from an early collection, "Simple thoughts," written when Lawrence Markel was but eight years old and into his early teens. Although at present only nineteen, and a student at Pasadena junior college, his poems show such depth and understanding that they are read over the air by the "Deacon." Larry's satisfaction lies in the thought that others enjoy and benefit from his poetry.

"SOMEONE CARED"

One day as I was walking,
as I sometimes often do.
I noticed people talking,
in a group that grew and grew.
I wondered what was going on,
and why they gathered there.
Then I went close when they were gone,
and saw a dog with blood stained hair.
No one cared about that dog, or the scarlet pool he bled.
In no one's throat there came a clog,
when they saw that pup was dead.
But I did care about that dog,
and I didn't smile all day.
Because I knew how bad I'd feel,
if in that street my own dog lay.

—Lawrence Markel

Mrs. J. B. Broadbelt, of 5561 Vonnie Lane, was hostess on Sunday, May 23, to the executive board of Teddy's Rough Riders American Legion Auxiliary in Los Angeles. The affair was pot luck and the women brought their husbands as guests.

New Dark Tones For Your Hosiery

Don't discard light-toned stockings because of the dark shades now in style. Just re-dye them in the new dark shades of Tintex stocking dye just introduced — as was done by Karen Lewis (above), recently crowned Queen at New York Press Photographers' Ball. And if you have dark-toned hosiery that you want in lighter shades, you can re-dye these also, since there are six light-toned dyes available as well.
The new dark shades of dye are mistique, a hazy taupe; bronze-skin, a sophisticated brown; black beauty, a dramatic off-black, and gunmetal, a misty gray-black.
You can achieve the transformation for about two cents a pair, including the color remover suggested when changing to markedly different color or when re-matching odd stockings.
The dye works on all the usual hosiery fabrics, including nylon and rayon.

This Black Magic Chocolate Cake Is a Luscious Cake Flour Triumph

Here's a dream of a chocolate cake, a Black Magic Cake, easy to make and delicious, with a fine, tender grain assured by the use of cake flour. It's so easy to get a light, fine texture and a tender crust when you use cake flour that even a beginner cook can plan a gala cake for dessert with complete confidence in success. This Black Magic Chocolate Cake is as light as down when it is first cut; if any is left after the first serving, it becomes a mellow treat that's moist to the last forkful.

Black Magic Chocolate Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour
¾ teaspoon salt
4 squares unsweetened chocolate
4 tablespoons butter or other shortening
2 cups sugar
2 egg yolks, unbeaten
1⅓ cups milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon soda

Sift flour once, measure into sifter, add salt, and set sifter aside.
Melt chocolate and shortening over hot water. Turn into mixing bowl or electric mixer bowl. Cool to room temperature. (This is important). Then add sugar and mix well. Mix together egg yolks and 1 cup of the milk; add to chocolate mixture and blend. Sift in flour, mix until all flour is dampened, then beat 1 minute at low speed of electric mixer or about 150 strokes by hand. Add vanilla and ½ cup more of the milk; stir until smooth. Dissolve soda in the remaining ¼ cup milk. Stir into the batter quickly and thoroughly. (Batter will be thin).
Turn into two 9-inch layer pans which have been lined on bottoms with paper, then greased. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 30 minutes, or until done. Or bake in 13x9x2-inch pan 45 minutes, or until done. Frost as desired.
Note: This cake may be mixed completely in a 2-quart double boiler. Melt the chocolate and shortening in a double boiler and cool to room temperature. Proceed with mixing as directed above, using double boiler instead of a bowl. Bake as directed above.

HASKELL A. KELLEY
Supervisor Third District

The privilege and opportunity to change the men in public office is the HERITAGE OF AMERICANISM

IT IS TIME TO CHANGE THE SUPERVISOR REPRESENTING THE THIRD DISTRICT

KELLEY IS A YOUNG MAN WHO WILL GIVE US EFFICIENCY—AND TRIM THE BUDGET AT THE SAME TIME.

Kelley pledges full time in the affairs of the Third District.

Haskell A. Kelley, candidate for supervisor, is seeking this office because he is convinced that a better administration of the Third District is needed, and that he can serve to bring about certain betterments in the District, that investigations will be made into the tax structures of the District and the County and great economy can be effected, because he believes nothing will retard the growth and progress of Orange County more than high and unbridled taxation.

It is also Kelley's intention to push forward for immediate action on the sanitation and sewerage disposal problems of the District.

Kelley states that he will give special attention to the problems and affairs of all the people who live in the unincorporated areas, who must depend upon their supervisor for their only representation.

Kelley made it clear that he seeks the office of supervisor, without any commitments to any group or organization, other than his promise to serve all the people without fear or favor, and to apply good business management in all the District's affairs.

Kelley has been closely identified with civic affairs of the Third District for the past five years. He was engaged in farming and citrus for twenty-two years and is very able to represent the farm and citrus groups. He is also, at the present time, a successful business man, being vice president of the Fire Chiefs Association of the County; a director of the Associated Chambers of Commerce; and is a member of AF & AM, Buena Park.

During the afternoon the Tischlers held open house at their home and many friends called during the afternoon to offer congratulations. A buffet supper was served throughout the afternoon. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tischler, paternal grand parents, were the maternal grandparent, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Donovan and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoefler, who had made the trip by car from Cleveland, Ohio, to be present. The Department of Motor Vehicles is carrying on a campaign to acquaint citizens with the new Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility law which will go into effect after July first. The people of California will be given an opportunity to learn their responsibilities under the new law through the press, over the radio and in a folder the department itself has issued. At the conclusion of the educational campaign ignorance will not be accepted as an excuse for violating the law. The folders may be obtained from offices of the department of motor vehicles, California highway patrol, police departments, service stations and insurance agents and brokers.

MRS. OLIVE WILLIAMS — PHONE AN 2-8279

Mr. and Mrs. William Lightfoot have returned home from a three weeks' motor trip which took them as far as Michigan where the former has a great many relatives including two brothers in St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie whom he had not seen for 33 years. They visited in Farmington with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shelters and their baby daughter, Christine, whom they saw for the first time. A number of side trips were taken during their stay, although they encountered rainy weather, and even snow, most of the time they were gone. The return trip was made through the southern states of Arkansas, Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas, New Mexico and Arizona.

Mrs. Minnie Romberg is proudly announcing the birth of her fifth great - grandchild, Eloise Gene Stute, who was born on May 22 in Santa Ana Community hospital. The little miss weighed six pounds and is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stute of San Clemente.

Payment of $800 to Frances Tucker for injuries received when she cut her hand on a door at the Centralia school on May 2, 1947, has been appoved in the superior court by Judge Robert Gardner. The payment by the insurance company for the Centralia Elementary school was approved on petition of Maude C. Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Ausburn became grandparents for the second time on May 10 when a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Ausburn, Jr., in St. Catherine's hospital in Long Beach. The baby has been named Bryan Gregory and is the second child in the family, a sister having been born about four years ago. Maternal grandparents of the new arrival are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potvin of Anaheim.

Cypress residents who remember Mr. and Mrs. Ed Paule of Yucaipa, who operated a grocery store in Cypress several years ago and their young daughter, Jean, who was graduated from the local school, will be interested to learn the latter is now employed as the financial secretary of the First Congregational church in Los Angeles of which Dr. J. Fiefield is the pastor. She "rates" her name on the door of her office.
